BOLD ESCAPE FROM JAIL.-Yesterday morning about half past one o'clock three prisoners, named respectively Martin Chisnel, William J. Chapline and Robert Pasters, made a daring es-cape from our jail. The men named confined with other prisoners in were confined with other prisoners in the third story of the jail, in a back room. The ceiling of the room in which they were confined is brick, arched, and the roof is of sheeting. The prisoners, with the use of some sharp instrument, removed a brick and made a hole through which they climbed onto the roof, traveled along it, and came down through a sky light to the third story again. From the third story they descended to the second floor by a flight of stairs. They then passed through a room to the front window of the jail over the gate, and jumped out down on to the street pavement below, a distance of about fifteen feet. Once there they were clear, and of course made their hasty departure. They were not heard by the watchman on duty entiside of the building, although the last one, in jumping out, knocked the window down after him. Jailor Jones was up at one o'elock attending to a sick member of his family.—
He had just fallen saleep, when he was nwakened by a noise, now supposed to have been one of the party fulling over a ladder in his way. Mr. Jones immediately got up to see what was the matter, but by the time he had secured. the third story of the jail, in a back to have been one of the party miling over a ladder in his way. Mr. Jones immediately got up to see what was the matter, but by the time he had secured his revolvers and got to the front door, the prisoners had gone. He at once started men in pursuit, but up to this writing no arrests have been made, although every effort has been made to secure the escaped. Chisnel left his hat and one of his shoes at the front door of the jail. Pasters had been in confinement about a year. He was originally arrested on a charge of assault and battery, and bound over to keep the peace for a year. Falling to give security for his good behavior, he was committed.—It is probable he would have been discharged at the next term of the Circuit Court.

Court.

Chapline had been in confinement since the 19th of December. He was sent (up from the police court on a charge of larceny.

Chisnel had been in confinement since last Saturday week. He was also sent up from the police court on a charge of robbing the man Hamilton, from St. Chairs with time.

Clairsville, of whom count at the time.

By advertisement in our paper to-day, it will be seen that Jailor Jones offers a reward for the escaped prisoners.

THE ISLAND SKATING PARK.—By reference to the report of the proceedings of the Legislature it will be seen that of the Legislature it will be seen that the citizens of the Island have petitioned the Legislature for a curtailment of the privileges of the Island Skating Park. When the Park was established, by its location it necessarily closed several of the streets and alleys of the Island. These streets and alleys were unused, and, on account of the low situation of the lot, which was nearly always a pond of water, there is no saying that for years, many may be, the adjoining lots would ever be built upon, and the use of the streets and alleys rendered necessary. But the citizens of the "independent province of the Island," wishing to drive or walk wheresoe'er they chose, made issue with the Park, and have taken steps to diher contract the powers or terminate the existence of the Park. The Park, on the other hand, wishes further powers than they originally possessed, and desire, among other things, to construct a canal for a feeder to the Park. To do this they will need greatly increased powers or privileges. The petition of a canal for a feeder to the Park. To do this they will need greatly increased powers or privileges. The petition of the clizens against the Park is the only one in the case, we understand, which has yet been submitted to the Legislature. The matter must necessarily be soon settled, and if the Park Company wish to attend to their own interests they had better be moving.

THE BURNING OF THE "WING of the Winchester, who was on watch at the time of the burning of that ill-fated craft, blames the negro employes with craft, blames the negro employes with setting the boat on fire. They were on extra or double duty, by direction of Captain Shepaird, which seems to have greatly incensed them. They had all announced their determination to quit the boat on its arrival at Pittsburg, and had declared that they would get even with the Captain for his treatment of them. It is also said that the watchman saveral times cautioned the fireman to be careful in throwing his coals of fire around. While it may seem strange that those fellows would be willing to risk their own lives for revenge, there is no telling what bounds to place to their desperation if they were angry, and maddened perhaps with liquor. Another affair which gives force to the supposition is, that the most of the colored hands of the boat who escaped death almost immediately disappeared on reaching shore, several of them carrying off some plunder. Several of the colored employes were lost—one of their bodies having been recovered, floating in the river. We have hot heard of any further particulars in regard to the sufferers or survivors of the wreck.

River News.—The river was rising

RIVER NEWS,—The river was rising right rapidly yesterday, with about fifteen feet of water in the channel The heavy rain of Saturday swelled all the streams above and as a consequence the streams above and as a consequence we have a high river.

On Saturday the Express left for Parkersburg; the Sharidan left for Cincinnati, with a most excellent trip of both freight and passengers; and the Eugle arrived from Parkersburg.

Yesterday the Viola arrived from Pittsburgh.

The Potomac is the regular Cincinnatipacket for to-morrow evening.

The Revenue, now at our landing, having been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, will, on Wednesday, take the place of the Hillman, in the Wheeling and Cincinnati trade.

In our telegraphic columns is an account of the collision of the Hillman and Naunie Byers, resulting in the loss of about thirty lives.

Saturday, considered in a weather

SATURDAY, considered in a weather point of view, was a most remarkably disagreeable day. In the morning a heavy rain fell, which was succeeded about noon by a wet snow, which melted about as soon as it struck the ground. Toward evening things seemed disposed to clear up.

Yesterday morning opened up cool and bright, and a most elegant day ensued, the sun shining nicely all day. A freeze improved the walking over that of Saturday very materially.

CATARRH.-We would advise the who are suffering from Catarra to go and consult Dr. Gardner, of New York, and consult Dr. Gardner, O. Ace Tons, who is now at the Grant House, Parlor No. 4. Dr. Gardner treats this disease very successfully by the use of cold Medical Inhalation. From our axchanges we learn of several cures he has performed, which entitles him to the confidence of the afflicted.

A Case of Conscience-Wanted,-Once upon's time the INTELLIGENCE owned in fee simple a handsome copy of Shakspeare. Some wayward thief whose poetlo taste ran away with his honesty, ran away with the book. Ever honesty, ran away with the book. Ever since that unlucky day we have been Shakspeare-ally bankrupt, and haven't dared draw on our recollection for a single quotation. We've heard of "honesty amongsthieves," and "conscience" money, and would like to know if there is any such thing as "conscience literature." If there is and the man that stole our Shakspeare is still alive we ask him to bring it back. If he's dead he need at mind it, he is getting his reward. If anybody wants to afford any other scamp a chance to pilfer another from us, such an elegant opportunity as the present will probably never be afforded again.

POLICE COURT,-In the police court on Saturday "Billy " Nuzum, for two offences of fast driving, was fined $10 and costs-85 a piece for his little diver sions.

Joseph Campbell, of whose arrest on a charge of robbing Mr. Abendshoen's gunsmith shop in 1861, we gave an account on Saturday morning, was sent up to the Circuit Court for trial. Campbell was identified by one of his victims as the man who had sold the stolengun shortly after the robbery. Algun shortly after the robbery. Al-though asserting his innocence, Camp-bell was properly held for trial.

the celebrated Oculistand Aurist of New York, is now at the Grant House, parlor No. 4, and can be consulted daily on all diseases of the eye, ear and catarrh. Read the following opinions of the press:

The Lonisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but 'frankly tells the patient whether he can be cored or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from disfunder to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from dis-asses of the eye or ear."

The Indianapolis Journal says: "We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and suc-cessful eye and ear Surgeon in the West."
